

Analysis:

The Area and perimeter of each provinces changes in accordance to its projection parameter and it give us completely different values. For example, for Ontario province, Lambert compare to Mercator gives us less value for perimeter and it is opposite for the area of this province.

The shape of these provinces also affect by changing the coordinator system. For example in Mercator system, areas farther away from the Equator appear larger.